

Paper Lamination

Paper Lamination is a specific technique of transferring images to sheer fabrics like organza, cheesecloth or netting. With the use of silk screens, unique and creative images are created. Explore the creative opportunities this technique gives the fibre and textile artist.

This is a one day workshop. Kits will be provided at cost. Interested? Email me at janetgailscruggs@gmail.com.

Here's some examples of paper laminated images.

